

WHO WOULD BELIEVE IT'S TRUE!

By Ruth Weber and Enrico Lopez-Yañez

Who would believe that an alien could land in my backyard
Was it my imagination?
Time has gone by and I still remember how it felt to fly
When we left for the space station!

But now WHO WOULD BELIEVE IT'S TRUE?
Mousie only just me and you.
I want to tell everyone how we sailed around the sun
But WHO WOULD BELIEVE IT'S TRUE?

Who would believe that girl from planet Goopda went to earth
Was it my imagination?
And now I return 'cause there's so much more that I'm supposed to learn
Can't wait to start my visitation!

But now WHO WOULD BELIEVE IT'S TRUE?
Blip there's only me and you.
I can't mention my earth friend, 'cause they'd laugh and say that she's pretend
WHO WOULD BELIEVE IT'S TRUE?

Bah dah bup bah, etc.
Was it my imagination?
My heart beats fast 'cause I know this trip is gonna be a blast.
It will be like a vacation.
I really miss my friend, I wish she'd come,
But I can't tell anyone because...
