

GOOD FRIENDS NEVER REALLY SAY GOOD-BYE

By Ruth Weber

When our adventure's over and it's time to go back home (shalom)
I'll take my mem'ries with me and then when I'm alone
I can play the whole day over right inside my head and whisper, "I will see you soon!" before I go to bed because

Chorus:

GOOD FRIENDS NEVER REALLY SAY GOOD-BYE they say,
"Until later when we meet under the sky"
So there's no need for crying we'll just give a hug and sigh because
GOOD FRIENDS NEVER REALLY SAY GOOD-BYE.

I wonder where we'll go or what we'll do next time we meet
We might stay here in my backyard or travel somewhere sweet
It really doesn't matter 'cause I know when I'm with you
There will be so much to talk about and so much that is new, 'cause

Chorus:

GOOD FRIENDS NEVER REALLY SAY GOOD-BYE, they say,
"Until later when we meet under the sky"
So there's no need for crying, we'll just give a hug and sigh because
GOOD FRIENDS NEVER REALLY SAY GOOD-BYE

Someday you'll be older and you may move away
But we still remember what we shared today
As long as we still hold each other close inside our hearts
We can both be good friends even if we are apart, because

Repeat Chorus
