

5. It's Time To Go

It's time to go
It's time to go

School is out, it's time to shout
It's been a wonderful day
But now we're done, we've had some fun
There's nothin' more to say
I think we've sung every song there is
So, let's be on our way

It's time to go
It's time to go

Feel the beat and move your feet
I'm really glad you came
Clap your hands, everybody stand
We're gonna play a game

Get ready to head for the door
But not 'til I call your name

It's time to go
It's time to go
It's time to go
It's time to go
Let's go!

Get ready to head for the door
But not 'til I call your name

It's time to go

Purpose: To transition your kids from the classroom to anywhere you need them to go.

Concepts: Time, Past, Present, Future, Listening Skills, Following Directions.

Setting: Large Group.

Materials: Clock Face with Hour and Minute hands.

Activities:

1. Begin a discussion about the beginning, middle and ending of each school day.
2. Using a clock face with hands, show your children at what point each day it will be time to go.
3. During the song, call out individual names to get your children in line or to let them move to their destination.
4. During the song, instead of using names, try calling out clothing color or types of clothes.
5. Talk about the importance of being ready to go and being on time as opposed to being late.
