

Three Dresses

Susan Salidor

I have one dress
One big pink pretty dress
Long on the bottom
And a puppy up on top
The dress came from my cousin
Who wore it to a wedding
But then she grew up
And she gave it to me

I'm wearing one dress
One very beautiful dress
One fancy dress
But one is not enough
Yes, I've got one dress
One very beautiful dress
One dressy dress
But one is not enough

So I got to thinking
If I look beautiful wearing one dress
I'll look more beautiful wearing two dresses, right?

Now I have two dresses
Two very beautiful dresses
The first came from my cousin
The second one from mom
And it's all black
And it is especially sparkly
With a broken zipper in back
And a bow in front

I'm wearing two dresses
Two very beautiful dresses
Two fancy dresses
'Cause one was not enough
Yes, I've got two dresses
Two very beautiful dresses

Two dressy dresses
'cause one was not enough

Well, then I got to thinking again
One dress was great and two dresses were even better
But three dress would make me look Even more beautiful and the third dress would Keep the other two clean

So now I have three dresses
Three very beautiful dresses

First one's Pink
Second one's Black and the third one's made of lace
And that's a lot of dresses
And together they're slightly bulky
And mom told me that three are enough

I'm wearing three dresses
One on top of the other
I like to layer up

Yes, I've got three dresses
Three dressy dresses
'Cause two were not enough

And I wore two dressy dresses

And I wore one dressy dress
But that was not enough

You know
The truth is with dresses
You can never enough.
