

Back in the Day

Susan Salidor

Back in the day
When I was one
I couldn't walk
I couldn't run
But I thought everything was fun
Back in the day when I was one

Back in the day
When I was two
I couldn't even tie my shoe
But I could hop from here to you
Back in the day when I was two

Back in the day
When I was three
I couldn't climb our backyard tree
But I could chase a honey bee
Back in the day when I was three

Back in the day
When I was four
I couldn't skip across the floor
But I could reach the freezer door
Back in the day when I was four

Back in the day
When I was five
I wanted to, but could not drive
But I could dance and jump and jive
Back in the day when I was five

Now I can walk and run
And climb and skip
And look my shoes are tied
And even though I still don't drive
I'm five, I'm five, I'm five
