

13. Imagination (by Jenny Heitler-Klevans, © 2011)

Jenny wrote this movement song for her work in early childhood settings. David had fun doing an intricate vocal arrangement for us to sing with our twin sons.

I'm flying around, flying around
Just like a bee with the buzzing sound
I'm stomping my feet, stomping my feet
Just like the elephant keeping the beat

(Chorus:)

I can babble like a brook (blblblblb)
I can jump like a spring (boing, boing)
I can use my mind to be anything (2x)

I'm flapping my wings, flapping my wings
Just like the birdie who loves to sing
I'm stretching up high, stretching up high
Like the long-necked giraffe reaching up to the sky

(Chorus)

I'm swaying in the breeze, swaying in the breeze
Just like a forest of giant trees
I'm spinning around, spinning around
Just like a top falling down to the ground

(Chorus)

I'm blasting to the stars, blasting to the stars
Just like a spaceship headed for Mars
I'm racing real fast, racing real fast
Just like a racecar zooming past

(Chorus)
