

HomeEarth

No matter where I roam 3x
Earth will always be my home (1x)

Verse 1

Saturn you have a ring around you Neptune does and other planets too Uranus rings are red & blue
OH Jupiter you have a few!

Verse 2

Mars you look like red clay
Icicy cold so they say
With an atmosphere most like our earth We might live there someday

No matter where I roam 3x
Earth will always be my home
No matter where I roam 3x
Earth will always call me home

Verse 3

Mercury, Venus, Earth & Mars
Each planet has it is own stars
Planets closest to the sun
Being terrestrial can be fun!

Verse 4

Pluto Pluto your so small
You may not be, a planet at all A ninth planet may be new to come Into our solar sys-tem

(B)

Floating in our galaxy (milky way) With my space suite on Constellations all around (Ooh ooh) looking down on earth

I can see the dawn.....23

No matter where I roam 3x
I will always call earth home
No matter where I roam 3x
I will always call earth home
Verse 5

Constellation is a group of stars
The biggest by far is Orion
On a clear night look to the sky for three bright stars in a line

Verse 6
Look for a handle with cup
Made out of stars when you look up Big and little dipper in the sky you'll never find them unless your tryin'

(B)
Floating in the atmosphere (out in space) I have on my jet pack
Light years from planet earth (ooo-ooo)
HomeEarth is calling me back...123

No matter where I roam 3x
Earth will always call me home.
No matter where I roam 3x
I will always call earth home
No matter where I roam 3x
Earth will always be my home
